CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. — This organization shall be known as the ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE ALUMNÆ.

ARTICLE II. — The object of this Association shall be to unite alumnæ of different institutions for practical educational work.

ARTICLE III. — Any woman who has received a degree in arts, philosophy, science, or literature from any college, university, or scientific school admitted to the Association is entitled to membership. New institutions shall be admitted on a three-fourths vote of the Executive Committee, confirmed by vote of three fourths of the members of the Association present at any regular meeting. Notice of such proposed action by the Association shall be given with the call for the meeting.

ARTICLE IV. — The officers of the Association shall be a President, six Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and one Director from each State whose resident members number twenty or more, who together shall constitute an Executive Committee, with power to transact the business of the Association in the interim of its meetings. The officers shall be chosen by ballot at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall hold their offices for two years, or until others be chosen in their place, and they shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur in their number. Seven members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE V. — The annual meeting of the Association shall be held in October, or at such time as may be appointed by the Association at its preceding meeting. Special meetings may be called by the Secretary at the request of the President, or of three Directors.

ARTICLE VI. — No State shall have more than one Director, and, so far as is possible, all the different institutions in the Association shall be represented on the Board of Directors. Each Director shall call at least one meeting annually of the members of the Association resident in the State represented by her, and may call other meetings of the alumnæ resident in her State when she deems it advisable. The Directors of neighboring States may, with the consent of the President, call a joint meeting of the alumnæ resident in their States. Each Director shall make an annual report to the Association of Collegiate Alumnæ.

ARTICLE VII. — Branch associations may be formed in accordance with the following provisions : —

1. They shall co-operate with the Association of Collegiate Alumnæ in its general work, while carrying on independent local work.

2. Regular membership shall be limited to graduates eligible to membership in the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, and residing within such distance as may permit their attendance at the meetings. Graduates who have become regular members of a Branch shall thereafter be considered regular members of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae.

3. Each Recording Secretary of a Branch shall make an annual report to the Association of Collegiate Alumnae.

4. Regular members of duly organized Branches shall pay to the General Association, through the Treasurer of their Branch, an annual fee of fifty cents.

5. Branch associations shall make their own by-laws governing all points except those hereby specified.

ARTICLE VIII. — An annual assessment of one dollar shall be due from each member at the annual meeting, except in the case of members of duly organized Branches. The names of members shall be stricken from the membership list when three successive annual dues remain unpaid. The President and Treasurer may remit sub silentio any fee when they deem it advisable.

ARTICLE IX. — This Constitution may be altered or amended by a vote of three fourths of the members present at any regular meeting, notice having been given in writing at a previous meeting.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY,

MISS MARION TALBOT.

PRESENTED OCTOBER 26, 1894.

THE first step in the review of the annual development and growth of such an organization as the Association of Collegiate Alumnæ is naturally a statement of the size of its membership, as this is taken, frequently and not altogether without reason, as an index of its power and importance. When the last annual report was presented, the membership numbered 1,580. Since that time, the loss by death, resignation, and forfeiture of membership for non-payment of dues is 39. The action of the Association at its last meeting, instructing its Treasurer to hold to a literal interpretation of the Articles in the Constitution governing the payment of fees, has doubtless resulted in the loss of some interested members, even though the provisions of the Constitution were construed as liberally as possible.

During the last few weeks, the Secretary has undertaken to send out invitations to join the Association to all alumnæ eligible to membership who were not already enrolled on the list of members. The number of responses thus far received seems hardly commensurate with the labor and expense involved in this effort to extend active interest in the Association and its work. It is quite possible, however, that one cause of the unexpectedly small number of replies is the widespread financial depression, which undoubtedly bears as heavily on the young women college graduates as on any class in the country. The time of year may not have been wisely chosen for the presentation of such an interest. Moreover, it is not unreasonable to suppose that some responses are delayed through absence, illness, or the pressure of other more immediate claims on time and purse, and that, by the time the canvas is completed, the Association will feel the benefits of a much larger increase in its membership than can be now reported. The number of new applications received is 220, with one exception, by far the largest number ever reported in a single year. The total membership is 1,768, or more than twice what it was five years ago.

At the meeting held in Chicago, a Committee was appointed to act in reference to the recognition of two Branches whose organization had been proposed. On receiving copies of the constitutions which had been adopted, and carefully examining their details, the Committee in behalf of the Association extended a cordial welcome to the Kansas City Branch and the St. Louis Branch. The work which these new organizations have done in a section of the country where the Association had but slight foothold has greatly strengthened the interest of college women. The total number of Branches is now 18, and they are all doing educational and social work of ranging degrees of efficiency. In some centres a great variety of pressing duties fall upon the limited number of alumnae who belong to this organization and leave them little time or strength to devote to this special work. In other communities, the Branches are strong and exert a powerful influence for good in local affairs. In all the Branches, the testimony is unanimous that the opportunity for friendly intercourse afforded to women of similar training and tastes is greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

The provisions of the constitution governing the formation of Branches, and the duties specified for the State Directors seem, in some States, at least, to cause a duplication of authority and consequent loss of working power. The reports presented at the last meeting by the Branches and by the State Directors, indirectly showed that some slight changes in the constitution are desirable, and the Association agreed at that time that they should be made. The special form they should take might well be determined without further delay.

It has always been the aim of the Association to keep its organization as simple in structure as possible. With the great increase in the number of members and of local Branches, it may be thought advisable to elaborate the form of organization and to provide formally for some methods of administration which are now a matter of inference, and which, if more carefully specified, might, according to the judgment of some interested members, increase the efficiency and power of the organization. Such an opportunity as is afforded at this session for the discussion of this matter by a representative company occurs so seldom that it should not be allowed to pass unheeded.

The publications of the year have numbered seven, covering one hundred and forty pages; about eighteen thousand copies have been distributed, and the work of the Association has thus been made known quite widely. The interests and aims of the Association were brought before the public in an effective way at the World's Columbian Exhibition. The exhibit which was made in the educational department attracted much attention, and has since been loaned in turn to the Women's University Club of New York, and the College Club of Boston.

No undertaking of the Association is more fruitful of good, both direct and indirect, than the maintenance of fellowships. It needs, however, the constant and hearty co-operation of every member, even though the main responsibility and labor be borne by the special committee, who have generously consented to devote themselves to the work. An examination of the membership lists shows that in ten years the proportion of members who have taken the Master's degree has increased from 7% to 11%, and the gain in those who have received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy is from .7% to 2%.

A closer scrutiny would show that undoubtedly this gain would have been greater if it had not been for a steady and constant increase in the requirements for the advanced degrees. The Master's degree, for example, is no longer given in cursu by the best universities and colleges of the land, but represents, in general, a certain amount of definite graduate work. The value of the Ph. D. degree has correspondingly grown. The Association is justified in claiming some share, however small, in this significant improvement.

The fact that, in addition to those who have taken professional degrees, one eighth of the members have taken higher academic degrees may be attributed, in part, at least, to the efforts made by the Association to promote the most advanced learning by establishing fellowships, and by making known, as widely as possible, the opportunities which exist for graduate study. The number of fellowships open to women is increasing every year, and it might prove of value and stimulus to the members of the Association to publish annually, in the Register, a list of such fellowships, with a few details as to their value and the conditions on which they are granted.

The last report of Miss Eva March Tappan, the Director of the Bureau of Occupations, was so full of interest that the Association asked Miss Tappan to take steps to extend a knowledge of the object of the Bureau. Unfortunately, Miss Tappan was obliged, early in the year, to give up the position in which she had labored efficiently and generously for the Association. At the request of the Executive Officers she appointed her own successor and transferred the work to Miss May Carbutt, who is now giving it time and thought.

Inquiries are frequently made as to the method of securing membership in the Association for a college or university. The constitution provides that new institutions shall be admitted on a three-fourths vote of the Executive Committee, confirmed by vote of three fourths of the members of the Association present at any regular meeting.

The Association, two years ago, instructed the Executive Committee not to receive any application for the admission of new institutions, and last year the Association voted that "New institutions shall be nominated for membership in the Association by any five members of the Executive Committee, who shall represent five different institutions already enrolled as corporate members of the Association." In taking this action two distinct ends were in view. First, to provide for the Association a safeguard against irresponsible nominations, which force the Executive Committee to an examination of the institutions in question, and to a definite decision concerning them; and second, to afford, by this new method of nomination, as full an opportunity as possible for a wise extension of the corporate membership of the Association.

This action does not seem to have been entirely successful in securing all the ends sought. Though it was decided that invitations to join the Association should originate within the Association, yet, within the past year, members of the Executive Committee have been frequently solicited to make nominations, and thus have been forced to make an examination and a decision concerning institutions of which they may have had but little real knowledge, or, as an alternative, to decline the requests and thereby run the risk of misunderstanding and ill-feeling, even while conforming to the instructions of the Association. The problem is one which has been constantly before the Association. Very early in its career the conviction was felt that in no way could the members better carry out the object of their organization — practical educational work — than by endeavoring to raise the standard of collegiate education for women. A very short time passed and it was discovered that the policy to be followed in regard to the admission of new institutions to membership would be an important factor in determining the value and efficiency of the proposed work. A thoughtful and deliberate discussion followed, and it was agreed that a conservative policy should be adopted. This has been followed to the extent that, since the year following the organization of the Association in 1882, but two colleges have been admitted, — one in 1886 and one in 1890. The time has come when in the minds of many the conservative policy has given place to one of rigid exclusiveness. The question is one which may well be considered in the light of experience, and some measures should be adopted for its solution not in accordance with the enthusiastic verdict and hopeful promises of ardent friends of individual institutions, but in line with the best development of collegiate ideals as well as with the needs of the Association itself.

An allied problem is the part the Association should take in promoting interests not peculiarly its own, but which may appeal to some if not all of its members. Judging from past experience, it would seem that a part of the influence and authority that the Association carries, both in this country and abroad, is due to its singleness of purpose. While its members, individually and through other organizations, have the opportunity to work for all the highest and best humanitarian objects, their efforts in this body should be directed solely toward the object which unites them.

REPORT OF THE ANNUAL MEETING, OCTOBER 25-27, 1894.

THE thirteenth annual meeting of the Association was held in New Haven, Conn., October 25, 26, and 27, 1894. The business sessions were preceded by an informal social meeting in the parlors of the New Haven House on the evening of October 25.

The morning of October 26 was spent in visiting the buildings of Yale University and other points of interest under the guidance of members of the Connecticut Branch.

The first regular session was held in Marquand Chapel, Yale University, on Friday, October 26, at 2.30 P. M. An address of welcome by the President of the Connecticut Branch, Miss Lillian E. Prudden, was responded to by the President of the Association, Mrs. Martha Foote Crow. The annual report of the Secretary was read and accepted. The report of the Treasurer, Mrs. Mary Roberts Smith, showed receipts for the year, $1,054.36; expenditures, $982.96; balance on hand, $71.40. The annual reports of the State Directors were presented, and indicated that, while in a few instances effective work in behalf of the Association was carried on by the Directors, in most of the States represented, its interests were promoted chiefly by local Branches. The work which had been carried on through the year in these Branches was summarized in a paper prepared from the reports of the local Secretaries by Miss Ruth Barker Franklin. Action was postponed on an amendment which had been proposed concerning the duties of State Directors, and the President was instructed to appoint a special committee to recommend a revision of the articles of the constitution concerning the relations of the Branches and the State Directors to the general Association. The President appointed Miss Marion Talbot, Mrs. May Wright Sewall, and Miss Jessie Van Vliet, as members of this committee.

The report of the Committee on the Representation of the Association at the World's Columbian Exposition was presented by the Chairman, Mrs. Mary Whitney Chapin. The thanks of the Association were extended to Mrs. Chapin for her assiduous care and devotion in furthering the interests of the Association.

Mrs. Kate Morris Cone reported concerning the work of the Bureau of Collegiate Information, and suggested that the members of the Association and the Branches give their assistance by sending information concerning the higher education of women. In accordance with the request of Mrs. Cone, the Association authorized Miss Talbot and Mrs. Chapin to publish in the form of leaflets the most important and significant of the charts which had been prepared for the exhibit of the Association at the World's Columbian Exhibition. At the suggestion of Mrs. Crow, it was voted to unite the Bureau of Collegiate Information and the Committee on Educational Progress.

In the evening at eight o'clock the Association and invited guests assembled in Warner Hall and listened to addresses by President Dwight, of Yale University, and Prof. Arthur T. Hadley, Dean of the Graduate School of Yale University. A paper by Mrs. Harriet C. Brainard, on "The Significance of the Ideal in Educational Work, — A Plea for Pure Scholarship," was read by Mrs. Crow. The session was followed by a reception generously and hospitably tendered by the Connecticut Branch.

On Saturday morning, the session was opened by a report on Recent Educational Progress by Mrs. Martha Foote Crow. Miss May Carbutt reported for the Bureau of Occupations, whose object is to assist members of the Association in obtaining positions as teachers, secretaries, librarians, laboratory assistants, etc. The thanks of the Association were tendered to Miss Carbutt, and the sum of fifty dollars was appropriated for the work of the Bureau during the ensuing year.

The Committee on Endowment of Colleges reported through the Chairman, Miss Alla W. Foster. In addition to its general work, the committee had made a special effort to carry into effect the views of the Association in connection with the granting of a charter by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to Radcliffe College. The efforts of the committee had been ably seconded by interested friends, to whom the thanks of the Association were especially extended.

The report of the Committee on the National University was presented by the Chairman, Mrs. Annie Howes Barus, and its recommendations were adopted. The Committee on the Study of the Wage Question reported that the statistics which had been secured had been placed in the hands of the Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics of Labor for compilation, and that a complete report would be made later to the Association.

The Committee on Collegiate Administration presented a report through Miss Florence M. Cushing, and recommended that a committee of five be appointed by the President and Secretary, whose duty it shall be, first, to take under consideration the question of the adjustment of the Association to the changes and developments of the past five years in college and university work; and second, to report the results of such consideration at the next annual meeting of the Association. The recommendation of the committee was adopted.

An invitation was received to send fraternal delegates to the sessions of the National Council of Women. It was voted unanimously that, while heartily appreciating the kind invitation extended by the National Council, the Association should decline to ally itself as an Association with any other organization. It was voted to accept the invitation of the Ohio Branch and hold the next annual meeting in Cleveland, Ohio.

It was voted to appoint Mrs. R. H. Wiles as Chairman of a Committee to consider the relations and duties of the Association to the public schools, and report at the next meeting.

Mrs. Helen M. Hadley, Mrs. Bessie B. Helmer, and Miss Anna H. Palmie were appointed a Committee on Nominations. A communication was received asking for the recognition of the Duluth Branch. The Secretary was instructed to extend a cordial welcome to the new Branch, provided that on examination its constitution should be found to conform to the requirements of the general Association.

The session on Saturday afternoon opened with a report of the Committee on Fellowships, by Mrs. Bessie Bradwell Helmer. It was voted to adopt the recommendation of the Committee and appropriate the sum of one hundred dollars for the Fellowship Fund. The generous co-operation of Mrs. Phebe Hearst and of the Woman's Education Association in establishing fellowships was specially reported.

A paper on "The Baby's Mind, a Study for College Women," by Miss Millicent W. Shinn, was read by Miss Mary W. Calkins. The report of the Committee on the Study of the Development of Children was presented by Mrs. Annie Howes Barus. It was voted that the Committee act at their discretion, with reference to the collected observations on children, that they be recommended to publish results through the periodical press, and that the sum of fifty dollars be appropriated for their use. Miss Ada Woolfolk, of the Rivington Street Settlement, addressed the Association on the work of the College Settlements Association. The sum of fifty dollars was appropriated for the Treasurer's Clerical Fund, and of one hundred dollars for the Secretary's Clerical Fund.

The members of Association united in expressing their appreciation of the friendly hospitality and generous entertainment which had been extended to them by the Connecticut Branch and Yale University.

The meeting then adjourned.

MARION TALBOT, Secretary.

THE LOCAL WORK OF THE ASSOCIATION.

A SYNOPSIS OF THE ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE BRANCHES, PREPARED BY MISS RUTH BARKER FRANKLIN, AND PRESENTED TO THE ASSOCIATION AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, OCTOBER 26, 1894.

DURING the past year, the members of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae enrolled in the local Branches have been actively engaged in independent work in their own States and cities. In 1893, sixteen Branches reported a membership of 1,167. At present the members in eighteen Branches reach 1,261, nearly seventy-seven per cent of the members of the Association.

Many of these organizations adopt the plan of holding an annual meeting and placing the work in the interim in the hands of standing committees, while in other places, the members meet monthly or quarterly for definite and systematic literary work. Chicago, Connecticut, Los Angeles, Minnesota, Rhode Island, and Washington have held their meetings monthly; Boston, California, Detroit, and New York, quarterly; while Philadelphia and Eastern New York report four meetings each and the other Branches only the annual meetings.

In Rhode Island, Domestic Science was the subject chosen for the year's study. The public meeting, at which Prof. Lucy M. Salmon, of Vassar College, lectured on "Domestic Service," was the introduction to a series of papers given by the members

Some of the subjects presented were: "The Chemistry of Foods," "Physiology of Nutrition," "Co-operative Housekeeping," "The Legal Relation of Mistress and Maid," "Household Furnishings to avoid Dirt and Dust."

The meetings in Washington were largely of a social nature and were intended to promote acquaintance among the college women of the city. The papers given by Miss Wells, of the Woman's College, Baltimore, on "Greece"; by Miss Chester on "A College Settlement in the North Carolina Mountains"; and the address of Mr. Stanley Brown on "Seals and Seal Catching on the Pribyloff Islands," show, however, that literary work also had a place at these gatherings.

In Connecticut, as well, the social element has been an important factor, and over the tea cups many subjects of interest have been discussed, among them, "The Effect of Education on Poverty" and "Are College Women Conservative on the Question of Woman's Suffrage; if so, why?" From time to time papers were given on "Sophie Kowalewski," "The Social Arrangements at the University of Chicago," and "Education of Women in Japan," — this last by one who had for years lived and taught among Japanese women.

The Secretary of the Chicago Branch writes: "The meetings have been largely attended and of great benefit to all members." The program of work included papers on "Oekology, or the Science of Right Living," by Mrs. Ellen H. Richards; "The Formation of a Purchaser's League to Protect Working Women and Children," by Mrs. Florence Kelley, of Hull House; "After College, What for Girls?" by Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett; "The Work of the State Board of Charities," by Miss Julia C. Lathrop; also lectures by Prof. A. C. Miller, of the Chicago University, on "Progress and Discontent — an Economic Analysis,” and by Dr. Bayard Holmes on “The Conscience of the State.” One meeting of this Branch was held in the interest of the public schools of Chicago. Methods were discussed for the improvement of the schools by appointing, as teachers, only women whose education will warrant such appointment.

At the meetings of the Minnesota Branch, seven papers were presented by different members and each paper was preceded by a bulletin of the monthly news. Miss A. B. Gould, Honorary Fellow at the University of Chicago, spoke at one meeting on “The Need of Unity in the Standard of University Examinations.”

In February, Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer and Col. Higginson spoke to the Boston Branch on “The Value of Fellowships for Women,” and two months later the same subject was presented by Prof. Coman, of Wellesley, and by Prof. Powers, of Smith. In connection with the annual business meeting, a brief report of the work of the College Settlement at Dennison House was given by Miss Helena S. Dudley, and an account of the making of the Century Dictionary, by Miss E. May Dame; while Miss Katherine Spence, of South Australia, told of the state of society in that country. The members also joined with the Society for the study of the development of children on two occasions and listened to President G. Stanley Hall, of Clark University, and to Prof. J. Royce, of Harvard College.

The literary meetings of the California Branch were held in connection with the Woman’s Congress of the Mid-Winter Fair. The Alumnæ had charge of the session on Higher Education, and several members spoke on the value of higher education, the opening of graduate work to women, and other kindred topics. Two sessions of the Educational Congresses held in May were also placed in the control of Alumnæ, one on "Art and Literature in Secondary Schools," under the direction of Miss Agnes Crary, and one on "Child Study," under Miss Millicent W. Shinn.

Papers were read before the Detroit Branch by Miss Bates on "Work of Women as Judges of the World's Fair," and by Miss Bancroft on "Opportunities for Studying English at Foreign Universities"; and the members, with a large number of guests, enjoyed the address by Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer on "New Opportunities for Women."

The Alpha and Omega of our modern educational system — the Kindergarten and the University — were the subjects considered by the Branch in New York City. The first-named topic was presented in three papers: "The Scientific Basis of the Kindergarten," Miss Angelina Brooks; "The Philanthropic Use of the Kindergarten," Miss Marguerite Merrington; "The New York Settlement Kindergarten," Miss Grace Darling. The second topic, restricted to one University, that at Chicago, included: "The Mission of the University of Chicago," Miss Emily James Smith; "The Social Arrangements," Miss Kate Holladay Claghorn; "Prof. Von Holst in his Lecture Room," Mrs. Laura Brownell Collier. Through the courtesy of Mademoiselle Velin, the members at one meeting listened to Monsieur Coquelin, who recited several selections in French.

While the Eastern New York Branch has made a study of parliamentary rules and usage, devoting two meetings to that work, the Fiction Club in Central New York has continued its bi-weekly meetings, aiming to read fiction intelligently and to cultivate a fluent discussion of the books read. During the winter, the Branch gave a complimentary lecture to all the literary clubs of Syracuse. The lecturer was Dr. Wm. Elliott

Griffis, and his subject, "Literary Japan." The Housekeepers' Club has also done efficient work in organizing a course of lectures on subjects pertaining to domestic science and economy and has prepared a Household Register to be sold to those desiring assistance in any department of domestic work.

Of the four meetings reported by the Philadelphia Branch, two were purely social, and at one of these the non-graduate college women of the city were guests of the Alumnae. Guests were also present at the lecture given by Dr. Truman J. Backus, on "The Higher Education for Women considered as Evolution." Reminiscences of the Columbian Exposition furnished a subject for one meeting, with papers on "La Rabida," by Miss Helen Arnold; "The Fair as a Source of Pleasure," by Dr. Mary Johnson Olds; "The Fair as a Stimulus," by Miss Helen Tuxbury; and "Some Congresses held at the Fair," by Miss Mary C. Wiggins. Under the general subject, "The Economy of the Household," were considered: "The Relations of Employer and Employed," Mrs. Florence Yost Humphries; "The Scope of Domestic Science," Miss Katherine B. Davis; "The Training of the Mistress," Mrs. Emma Logan MacCoy; "The Training of the Maid," Mrs. Josephine Mitchell Carter. Dr. MacAlister, President of Drexel Institute, who was present, spoke of the work of the Institute in Domestic Art.

This long list of literary meetings does not, however, indicate all that has been accomplished by the local Branches. Educational and philanthropic interests have not been neglected. Local work of this kind must be largely determined by the needs of the city or state in which each Branch is organized; hence, in striving to do the duty that lies nearest, Chicago has supported a fellowship at Hull House, Rhode Island has contributed toward the fund for the Women's College of Brown University, and Minnesota has continued its investigation of the sanitary conditions of the public schools in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

In Western New York the Branch has joined with enthusiasm in the movement to take the schools from the control of the political boss and to better their condition. The members visited schools, investigated methods of teaching, communicated with School Boards of other cities, and thus thoroughly informed themselves on the actual and ideal conditions of public schools. Two public meetings were then held under the auspices of the Branch, at which Mr. Felix Adler and Dr. Draper, President of Illinois State University, spoke on "Municipal Reform in the Public Schools."

During the session of the Constitutional Convention, a petition was sent to that body asking for a careful consideration of the bill "to separate politics from the management of the public school system."

The work of University Extension carried on in Indiana has been most successful, and for the coming year the sub-centres are to be established in the poorer parts of the cities, to bring the work more within the reach of the laboring class. This Branch is aiming to have all collegiate alumnae exempt from the county examinations for a license to teach and also to raise the entrance requirements to Indiana University.

The St. Louis Branch has found its work close at hand in arousing greater interest in higher education among the girls of that city. By offering a prize of fifty dollars ($50) for the best work in English in preparation for college in the City High School, they have shown their interest in the girls preparing for college, and have suggested to the students the desirability of a college course.

The chief interest of the California Branch has been in the work of Social Settlements. The germs of a Settlement were already in existence in the clubs and classes, started by several different workers, and the problem of combining these different forces was undertaken by the Alumnæ. Under their auspices, a meeting of all interested in the work was held. The meeting was addressed by Miss Jane Addams, and resulted in the formation of a Social Settlement Association. The Alumnæ are well represented on the Board of Management, although the Settlement will not have a distinctively college name. Much has also been done by the Committee on Endowment of Colleges in California. Through the press they have circulated information about the expense of universities, and have suggested for small money gifts other ways than endowment of new colleges.

The clerical work undertaken by the Los Angeles Branch was the organization of a club of the Settlement order in the Mexican and poorer quarter of the city. The social features of the meetings were also specially emphasized.

The work of establishing home libraries in the poorer parts of the city has been continued in Albany by members of the Eastern New York Branch, although it has not been adopted as a part of the regular work.

The two objects in which the Philadelphia Branch has been interested for three years are now attained. A free public library has been established, and a public High School, with a classical course for girls, has been opened. The earnest, organized efforts of the Alumnæ have been a strong power toward the accomplishment of what seemed an almost hopeless undertaking.

With all these varied local interests, the Branches have not overlooked the work of the General Association. Regularly organized committees in Indiana, California, and Ohio have collected statistics on the wage question, and most gratifying results have been obtained from the observations in the study of child development, made by members in California, Detroit, and Indiana. From Boston, California, Chicago, Detroit, Kansas City, Eastern New York, and Ohio, the Committee on Fellowships have received hearty co-operation and substantial financial support.

The work accomplished has been valuable in its direct and indirect results, but since we do not pass sentence on "the vulgar mass called work," alone, we must also recognize the great efficiency of these local Branches in the increased opportunity, which they offer, of realizing the ideas for which the Association stands.
